- God told Jeremiah to take the belt to Perath and hide it there in a crevice in the rocks, and he did. Many days later the Lord told him to go get the belt. He did but it was ruined and completely useless.
- Then God compared the ruined belt to the upcoming ruin of Judah and Jerusalem because they refused to listen to him, and followed other gods.

- Moses said to the Lord, "Then the Egyptians will hear about it! By your power you brought these people up from among them. And they will tell the inhabitants of this land about it. They have already heard that you, Lord, are with these people and that you, Lord, have been seen face to face, that your cloud stays over them, and that you go before them in a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night."

RQ(14) Were the ten commandments written on only one side of the tablets of stone?

No, both sides. Exodus 32:15

Same on both sides? Otherwise, they would have had to turn the tablets over to see it all; It

Full copy on each side? Dustin: in ancient times, two copies of a covenant were made - here
God gave man both

RQ(15) Who prayed the first intercessory prayer that caused someone to be healed?

Perhaps:

Then Abraham prayed to God and God healed Abimelech, his wife and his maidservants, and they started having babies again; Genesis 20:17-18

Actually, it was Abraham's action that caused Abimelech to assume that Sarah was not Abraham's wife

Jesus, of course, prayed and then healed

RQ(16) What is a common characteristic of Solomon's 700 wives (besides the obvious)?

- Abraham (tamarisk tree), Gen 22:33

RQ(25) When were the Israelites to keep vigil during the night?

Passover, Exodus 12:40-42

Consider:

- 1) this vigil never seems to have been a part of the Passover festival in subsequent years, though that was the intent
- 2) it was not a part of the Last Supper (a Passover celebration), but Jesus took vigil in the Garden of Gethsemane (and tried to get his disciples to keep it with him)
